"What I value the most from my experience at the school in Alicante was being able to put my Spanish into practice as soon as I stepped out of the classroom in bars and cafes around the city. Alicante is also a comfortable and small city; it's easy to get around, there's a great young vibe, and best of all, there's sun and the beach right around the corner from the school!"

Besides its history, architecture and beauty, what truly makes Granada an ideal destination to study Spanish is the local Andaluscular and the study of the studysian people, who are laid-back, friendly, warm, welcoming and always up for party. "I was lucky to have been able to learn Spanish in one of the school's outside classrooms since the weather and the beaches were great. The best part of learning Spanish in Malaga is being able to interact with so many Spanish people from there. The people there are very open and friendly! It was a dream: a beautiful old city and beach."

SALAMANCA

Salamanca's sandstone buildings glow golden throughout the day, reminding us that underneath its lively college atmosphere it has a remarkable history that dates back to the third century. As a relatively small city, Salamanca is conveniently walkable, full of impressive sites and alive at all hours of the night thanks to Spain's oldest university and its Spanish and international population. And great news for Spanish learners-most people consider the dialect spoken here to be the purest form of Castilian! Located just two hours from the capital city of Madrid and just under three hours from Toledo (another UNESCO World Heritage Site) Salamanca is the perfect city to explore nearby landmarks and surrounding villages, mountains and lakes.

DOMINICAN REPUBLIC

The Dominican Republic is a gorgeous Caribbean nation characterized by pristine beaches and friendly faces. Known as much for its colonial architecture as for its world-class baseball players, some of the best coffee in the world comes from the Dominican Republic and, like a good cup of java, it's heady and smooth and at the same time energizing and exciting. The country makes up two-thirds of the island of Hispañola and is located about 600 miles southeast of Florida. A natural gateway to the Americas between the Panama Canal and Central and South America, this landmass was first discovered by Columbus on Christmas Day, 1492. A perfect setting to learn Spanish!

Santo Domingo

They say that Santo Domingo has a double life. On the one hand, we have the colonial part that is peaceful, cobblestoned and full of historic buildings. On the other hand, we have the side that is modern, lively and dances to the passionate merengue. Sosua is a small but prosperous city in the Dominican Republic that has become one of the most popular tourist destinations in the country. Even with the many tourists that visit. Sosua remains a tranquil and intimate fishing village. What's its secret? Turquoise waters ideal for scuba diving and snorkeling, a tasty local cuisine and a very animated night life in which elegant jazz is very prominent. If you want to learn Spanish in a place that everyone is dying to visit, we can help you get there!
