Location

A TYPICAL VILLAGE OF THE SWISS ALPS

Braunwald is a car-free resort village situated on a sunny terrace above the Linth valley. It is just over an hour's drive from Zurich and over 1'250m above sea level, in the Canton of Glarus.

Braunwald is first mentioned in 1421 and, by 1725, a few families were living there year-round. Today, Braunwald has a population of 308 people living in 10.13 km².

The opening of the Braunwald funicular in 1907 was followed by the opening of nearby hotels, including ours, formerly called Alpina Hotel. In the second half of the 20th century, several chair lifts and gondola lifts opened to provide access to the ski slopes above the village.

ACCOMMODATION

A TRADITIONAL SWISS ALPINE HOTEL

This century-old hotel was born together with the funicular - the only means of access to the village - and with tourism in Braunwald.

There are several spaces: three terraces, a games room, a TV room, living rooms, a restaurant, a small self-service kitchen, toilets on all floors and a 90m² room exclusively for friLingue's activities!

Our hotel is only 150m from the funicular!

The nearest small local market is 100m from our hotel, and a very charming cafe is only 50m away.

The first ski lift to go up is only 400m away!

FAMILY CAMP

Parents no longer need to feel excluded because they are also welcome in our camp!

They can also take language classes (16 lessons per week) and/or participate in winter activities.

But if they prefer, they have full autonomy to explore Switzerland, where it is very easy to travel by train or car.

For lodging, parents can have a family room or a private room.
