Why studying Italian in Catania

The Mediterranean soul

Catania has a strong Mediterranean imprint. The Mediterranean soul flows along the streets and is the result of centuries of cultural influences and stratifications!

From the volcano to the beach all in the same day!

Catania is located between Mount Etna and the Ionian Sea with two different types of beach: the sandy 'Playa' and the rocky 'Scogliera'. Here you can lay on beach in the morning and hike on Mount Etna in the afternoon!

The Baroque City center

The Sicilian Baroque city center is an UNESCO World Heritage and gateway to the UNESCO World Heritage volcano Etna. 'Melior de Cinere Surgo' is the city motto and it cannot be more true!

Nightlife

The Catanesi are lively people like the volcano and so is the city nightlife with so many places to eat, drink and enjoy to live music. Catania is a vibrant university city and... university students never sleep!

The Opera House and Vincenzo Bellini

Catania is the birthplace of 'Il Cigno', Vincenzo Bellini, the world-famous composer of 'La Sonnambula', 'Norma' and 'I Puritani'. Lovers of classic and symphony music and Opera will find Teatro Massimo Bellini to be one of the most beautiful concert halls in Italy!

The fish market and gastronomic traditions

They say that you travel 'with your 'panza' (belly) and that is true! A gastronomic trip to Catania is a real treat for all appetites. People's taste buds go pleasantly crazy in here... The centre of all of this is 'A Piscaria', the daily fish market, an experience not to be missed!

The Saint Agatha procession on the 5th of February

Witnessing the Saint Agatha procession is an unforgettable experience. The procession of the city's patron saint attracts almost a million people every year, both religious followers and curious tourists.

Music and concerts

Catania is a very important music production scene in Italy: Franco Battiato, Carmen Consoli, I Denovo, Mario Venuti, Luca Madonia, Mario Biondi, to mention some big names who took here their first steps in the music world!

Museums

For those who like to fill their study a broad stay with culture, Catania offers a variety of museums, historical Palaces, Monasteries and archeological sites where you can dive into History and Culture!

Tradition, myth and folklore

Catania and its surrounding area is full of myths and legends: the legend of Etna, home of the God Vulcan, forger of weapons for Zeus, or the myth of Ulysses and ops Polyphemus, the legend of Aci and Galatea or the myth of Gammazzita.

Cinema and literature

Not only is Catania passionate about cinema but the cinema is also passionate about Catania! Some of the most important movies in the history of Italian cinema have been filmed here, also inspired by city's many great novelists!

Cinemas and theatres

Catania is like a real-life theatre and perhaps that is why the city has the most theatres in Sicily! In summer, Catania opens its 'arenas', the open-air evening cinemas where you can enjoy the films you missed during the year!
