EXCURSIONS AND ACTIVITIES

Monday to Friday students have half-day excursions to sights, museums and neighbourhoods of London. In addition, students will have a full-day excursion to other famous places in England. Sunday is a free day for students to explore the city with their group leader; individual students will be supervised by an IH member of staff on this day. On Sundays there is also the option to have full day excursions to other places such as Stonehenge or York.*

Full day excursions include:

- Oxford with a visit to a university college and punting on the river
- Windsor with a visit to Castle and Eton village
- Bath with a trip to the Roman Baths
- Cambridge with walking tour and punting on the river

Half day excursions include:

- The Tower of London
- The Science Museum
- National History Museum
- British Museum
- Walking tours of Westminster and London parks
- Visit to Camden markets and walk along the canal

Activities

If doing the full package, students will have evening activities such as games and quizzes in their residence, supervised by IH staff members.

*Optional excursions come at an additional cost
