Trinity CertTESOL

Our Certificate in Teaching English to Speakers of Other Languages (Or CertTESOL for short) is an internationally recognised qualification for teaching English as a foreign language! This course is accredited by Trinity College London and is recognised by The British Council as an initial qualification for teaching English both abroad and here in the UK. This certificate is accredited on the UK Qualifications Framework at level 5 (equivalent to the second year of a degree).

Dates and prices

The next CertTESOL courses will start:

Spring 2024 - Part-time Course. (Starts March 2024 - exact dates tbc)

Summer 2024 - Full-time Online Course. (Starts July 2024 - exact dates tbc)

Places are limited, so please email us at certtesol@languagecourse.net now to register your interest.

Our Course:

We have developed two different models of this course in order to make the CertTESOL as accessible to as wide a range of people as possible. Both models will equip you with the skills and knowledge needed to teach English to your students in both online and face to face settings. Both models result in exactly the same internationally renowned certificate.

Model 1: part-time: This model takes 15 or 16 weeks to complete and involves blended elements of both online and face to face study. In this course the teaching theory and methodology modules are learned through online work completed from Monday to Friday each week. The practical modules are completed either by attending sessions on Saturdays - either face to face, or online via zoom.

Trinity CertTP

The CertPT is an advanced qualification for practicing language teachers seeking to update, improve and enrich their professional teaching practice. It draws upon established and evidence-based teaching theory, while promoting the acquisition and refinement of the specialist skills needed to develop and utilise effective teaching resources.

This qualification is accredited by Trinity College London and sits at level 6 on the UK's National Qualifications Framework (the same rating given to the final year of a bachelor's degree at university). This places it between the Trinity CertTESOL/Cambridge CELTA and DipTESOL/ DELTA qualifications.

Over the course, you will develop your ability to evaluate, adapt, create and reflect on the use of different teaching resources, with a specific focus on their application in your own teaching context. Beside general language teaching, contexts could include, for example, teaching young learners, or teaching English for specific or academic purposes.

Please note that you can start and finish the course work on any date according to your needs, but LTN currently submits all students' completed portfolio of assignments to Trinity college London at set points throughout the year, so if you miss an agreed final submission date, you may need to wait until the next submission date to formally complete your course and receive your certificate.
