For Homestay and Residential Camp participants arrival is always on Sunday and departure on Saturday, but it is possible to book additional nights if needed. For one week programs a full Saturday activity is included. It is possible to book an additional day of accommodation if late check out or Sunday departure is needed.

Homestay Camp

for 11-17 years old

Accommodation is with a homestay family allowing students to experiencing local culture first hand, whilst practicing their language skills. From Monday to Saturday breakfast and dinner are taken with the host family and lunch at school.

On Sundays all meals are with the family and the student can participate in family trips and social activities. All students live in single rooms.

Residence Camp

for 11-17 years old

Accommodation is in the LTL residence, together with other Junior Camp program participants in shared rooms. A program coordinator lives with the participants, organizing activities, support and supervision during the program.

Students eat all meals together, either at home, the school or at a local restaurants in the area.

Day Camp

for 7-17 years old

Students participate in all classes and social activities, but stays with his or her parents at night and on Sundays. The day camp will include lunch at the school. During weekend trips, transport to the school can be arranged, depending on location. Pricing varies for Kids (ages 7-11) and Teens (ages 12-17). Kids can book at a lower rate (Teens pricing) if a parent accompanies them during all activities.

Half Day Camp

for 7-17 years old

Students stay with their parents and join the Junior Camp language classes every day, but not the afternoon and weekend activities. Perfect for students who know the city but want to give their language skills a quick boost over the holidays.

Family Packages

Parents can accompany their children and either study a language course on their own, share accommodation with their child or explore the city while their child is at the Junior Camp. Please enquire with us for a tailor made program for you and your family.
