WELCOME

Whether you're an aspiring young learner or a dedicated educator, we're thrilled to offer you an unparalleled experience in language and cultural immersion. Join us this summer and open doors to endless possibilities.

In Galway, our 12 to 17-year-old students immerse themselves in dynamic English classes and explore the rich tapestry of Irish culture. Meanwhile, teachers and educators in Dublin can sharpen their skills through our specialised Teacher Training and Development program, fully compatible with Erasmus funding.

With SEDA, it's not just about textbooks and lectures; it's about crafting experiences, forming global friendships, and investing in your future. Let this summer be the chapter where your story takes a transformative turn.

We can't wait to welcome you to the SEDA family!

SEDA Summer School proudly presents two distinct yet equally enriching programmes tailored to different age groups and learning objectives.

Our Galway campus is designed for young learners aged 12 to 17, offering an immersive English language experience and cultural exploration.

Meanwhile, our Dublin campus caters to adults aged 18 and above, focusing on Teacher Training and Development. Whether you're a young adventurer eager to dive into Irish culture or an aspiring educator seeking to upgrade your skills, SEDA Summer School offers the ideal personal and professional growth setting.

SEDA College Dublin

Our flagship campus is situated in the heart of Ireland's vibrant capital, offering educators the perfect blend of cultural immersion and world-class education. With state-of-the-art facilities, SEDA College Dublin provides students with a comprehensive learning experience, covering a wide range of teacher training and development through the learning of our Content Integrated Learning Methodology.

University of Galway

Discover education reimaged at the University of Galway, a prestigious institution situated amidst the scenic beauty of Ireland's western coastline. Our campus is a modern marvel, replete with cutting-edge laboratories, extensive libraries, and collaborative workspaces. Here, we offer a plethora of programs ranging from Engineering to Humanities, each curriculum thoughtfully designed to meet the challenges of the 21st century.

Dynamic Learning

Dive into 15 hours of interactive English classes per week, tailored to different age groups and needs. In Galway, our young learners focus on comprehensive language skills, while Dublin offers a specialized Teacher Training and Development course aimed at enhancing the competencies of educators.

Cultural Immersion

Discover the heart and soul of Ireland with curated cultural activities. Galway offers students an enriching journey through Irish traditions, music, and history, whereas Dublin's programs are fine-tuned to give teachers a comprehensive cultural and educational experience.

Premium Accommodation

Comfort meets convenience in our carefully selected accommodations. In Galway, students enjoy en-suite apartments in Dunlin Village with shared living spaces. Teachers in Dublin are treated to the unique charms of Leevin Hostel George, situated in the city center.

All-Inclusive Packages

Enjoy peace of mind with our all-inclusive programs that cover everything from English lessons, cultural and afternoon activities, to accommodations and meals. We also provide airport transfers and a pre-arrival welcome pack to set you up for a hassle-free summer experience.

MASTER ENGLISH BRAZILIAN JIU-JITSU

Brazilian Jiu-Jitsu (BJJ) is a martial art and combat sport rooted in Kodokan Judo's ground-fighting techniques. The art's modern incarnation began in the early 20th century with Mitsuyo Maeda, a Japanese Judo master who emigrated to Brazil.

There, he befriended Gastão Gracie and taught Judo to Gracie's son, Carlos. Carlos Gracie and his brothers, notably Hélio Gracie, would later adapt these techniques, emphasising ground combat and submission hold. The result was the distinct martial art now known as Brazilian Jiu-Jitsu.

BJJ PARTNERSHIP

Our program benefits from a valuable partnership with Jorge Santos Brazilian Jiu Jitsu (JSBJJ), a well-established BJJ team that has grown visibly since 2011. With branches in Dublin and across Europe, JSBJJ brings its experience and values to our course. Our shared mission is to produce skilled BJJ practitioners and individuals of strong character.

Our instructors, many affiliated with JSBJJ, are deeply passionate about martial arts. Their expertise spans teaching and competition, ensuring students receive a holistic education in Brazilian Jiu-Jitsu.

TEACHER TRAINING AND DEVELOPMENT

At SEDA College, we align our curriculum to the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages with the Council of Europe. The four key objectives within the SEDA Curriculum are;

COMMUNICATIVE ACTIVITIES

LANGUAGE LEXICAL
UNDERSTANDING

LINGUISTIC DEVELOPMENT

SOCIAL-CULTURAL UNDERSTANDING

The academic team at SEDA recognises that students cannot acquire everything they need to learn at once nor can they learn effectively from a random collection of exercises and assignments. At SEDA, the design of all our courses starts with the same question;

"Why are these students learning English?"

It is a question which helps focus the Curriculum and syllabus design team, and it ensures that the courses which are being designed are relevant for learners by taking into account the world outside the language classroom.
