GENERAL OBJECTIVES

- Learn Spanish in an immersive linguistic environment.
- Develop values such as cooperation and solidarity.
- Develop comradeship, coexistence, and mutual respect in an intercultural ambience where everybody contributes a vision and way of understanding the world, with an objective of enriching one another and learning together.
- Promote independence, teamwork, and responsibility.
- Raising awareness and creating an understanding of environmental values through a respect for nature.

DESCRIPTION OF THE COURSE

The academic program takes place continuously throughout the whole year and consists of 20 classes of 45 minutes per week, with a minimum subscription of one week. During this time, the participant will attend the school in central Madrid, along with a diverse array of students from all over.

Regarding accommodation, during their stay in Madrid the participant can lodge with a Spanish family who function as their host- a system of full board (breakfast, packed lunch and dinner) with laundry service once a week.

To perfectly compliment classes, cultural programmes are provided which offer the opportunity to visit the most emblematic parts of Madrid: Plaza Mayor, Puerta del Sol, Retiro park, Madrid of the Austrias, Sport in Madrid... also, attend Flamenco classes, wine tastings, concerts, Spanish cinemas...

Excursions are frequently offered which put students in contact with Spain's cultural and artistic heritage, including Segovia and its Roman aqueduct, Toledo, the impressive monastery of El Escorial built by Felipe II and Avila with its historic walls.

The cultural programme includes 3 weekly activities after classes.

STUDY VISA PROGRAM

Who this is for:

If you want to study at a Spanish university, TANDEM offers you a program that includes student visa management, a Spanish course, and preparatory classes for the entrance exam in a specialized center and student orientation. We can also organize your accommodation with host families or residences, and put you in contact with Spanish students for conversation exchange and practice.

The program:

After receiving your application:

- We manage your visa: TANDEM takes care of all the necessary formalities.
- We do a level test to place you in our appropriate Spanish courses.
- You attend intensive Spanish classes for as long as necessary, depending on the program chosen. You take part in our cultural activities, and if you wish, you stay with a Spanish family or in a residence selected by TANDEM.
- After the intensive training in Spanish, you start with the specific training for the "Selectividad" exam (entrance exam to Spanish universities) in our partner school, one of the best in Madrid.
- We explore with you in the choice of a career, in obtaining good grades for the access to university, and in all the necessary procedures to succeed in the access program.

Itinerary Options

- ✓ 14-month standard program: During 6 months (from April to September) you attend our intensive courses from Monday to Friday from 09.30 to 13.00 (20 lessons per week). When you reach level B1, you can start an 8-month Selectividad preparation course with our partner school (from October to December, 8 lessons per week, or from January to May with 20 lessons per week). The entrance exam is by the end of May. Price: 7.550 €
- ✓ 11-month intensive program: During 6 months (from July to December) you attend our intensive Spanish course, from Monday to Friday from 09.30 to 13.00 (20 lessons per week). When you reach level B1, you can start a 5-month intensive course to prepare for the Selectividad with our partner school (from January to May, 20 lessons per week). The entrance exam is by the end of May. Price: 6.890 €
- ✓ 9-month Superintensive Program: you will study Spanish in an intensive course from September to December. From January to May you will continue studying Spanish in an extensive course, and

Activities:

- Visit the Prado Museum. drid.com
- Visit the Thyssen Museum. @tandem-madrid.com
- Visit the Reina Sofía Museum. anish@tandem-madrid.com

"Passion for Art" is aimed at students who wish to immerse themselves in the world of art and familiarise themselves with one of the most beautiful parts of Madrid, the Paseo del Prado.

This programme will impart to students the vocabulary related to art during a number of visits to symbolic museums in the city. In little more than a kilometre, the 'Golden Triangle of Art' is located, composed of the Prado Museum, the Thyssen-Bornemisza Museum and the National Art Centre Reina Sofia. Students will have the opportunity to take in the works of the great masters of art history without needing to travel far.

We will take a trip through the pictorial evolution of such important artists as Velazquez, Goya, Sorolla, Picasso or Dali. As this isn't a fixed or closed programme, there is an opportunity to adapt to the artistic tastes of the student when it comes to planning each session.

Price: 425 euros/1 week.

General objectives:

- Learn about and appreciate the most important works of Spanish painters.
- Learn the context and history of the most important and well-known museums in Madrid.

Specific Objectives:

- Learn about the history of the most renowned museums.
- Learn about the most prominent painters in Spanish art including the historical context within which they developed their works.
- Distinguish the different characteristics and discrepancies of each style and each painter (Goya, Picasso, Velazquez, etc...).
- Recognise the most renowned works of a series of distinguished Spanish artists.
- Speak about the impressions and feelings transmitted by the art (based on a series of paintings).
- Recognise the pictorial evolution of the most renowned artists.

PASSION FOR SMALL MUSEUMS

Actividades:

- Visit the Sorolla Museum.
- Visit the Romanticism Museum.
- Visit the Lazaro Galdiano Foundation.

"Passion for Small Museums" is aimed at students who wish to immerse themselves in the world of art in a practical and fun way.

This programme combines a visit to the three small museums in Madrid which tend to go unnoticed under the imposing shadow of the "Triangle of Golden Art" museums. Many do not know that the city also holds other exhibits which are home to astonishing private cultural collections, where even the visit to the building itself is a pleasure for the senses. The student will be able to learn about those authentic treasures of Spanish history which tend to pass unperceived not only by tourists, but also by native Spaniards.

Price: 425 euros/1 week.

General Objectives:

- Discover and appreciate the small museums of Madrid.
- Learn the context and history of the lesser-known museums of Madrid.

Specific Objectives:

- Discover the history of the small museums
- Learn about and appreciate the lesser-known artists
- Distinguish the different characteristics of each style and the distinctions of each painter (19th century Romanticism, Sorolla's impressionism...)
- Learn and appreciate other types of works of art aside from pictorials, such as jewellery, sculpture, and ceramics in the Foundation of Lazaro Galdiano collection.
- Speak about the ideas and impressions transmitted by the art (based on a series of art pieces).
